

ASSOCIATE MEMBER COMMITTEE (AMC)

Lead. Engage. Shape the Future of School Business in California.

exclusively for CASBO Associate Members and Partners

The Associate Member Committee (AMC) is where industry partners move from participation to influence. This 13-member committee, serving staggered three-year terms, brings together engaged associate members to contribute their expertise, collaborate with CASBO leadership, and help drive initiatives that strengthen California's school business community.

Why Get Involved?

Serving on the AMC offers meaningful, high-visibility opportunities to:

LEAD

Play an active role in CASBO governance, including Board representation

ENGAGE

Build connections with school business leaders across California

INFLUENCE

Share your expertise to shape policy, programs, and professional learning

ELEVATE

Increase your visibility across CASBO's statewide network

GIVE BACK

Advance the school business profession through service and leadership

What Does the AMC Do?

The committee serves as a vital bridge between industry and CASBO by:

- Representing the voice of associate members
- Supporting CASBO's strategic priorities through collaboration and advocacy
- Contributing to key initiatives such as CASBO Con, scholarships and Sky Joyner Award.

Ready to Make an Impact?

- Move beyond sponsorship into active leadership and involvement
- Expand your impact within CASBO's statewide community
- Contribute to the success of California's TK-14 education system

TAKE THE NEXT STEP IN YOUR CASBO INVOLVEMENT

Applications to join the Associate Member Committee open in January/February.
